KEVIN NEAL APPOINTED TO MARICOPA HEALTH FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Phoenix, Ariz. (October 25, 2017) – The law firm of Gallagher & Kennedy has announced that Shareholder Kevin Neal has been appointed to serve on the Board of Directors for Maricopa Health Foundation (MHF), a nonprofit organization supporting Maricopa Integrated Health System (MIHS), Arizona’s only public health care system.

As a member of the Board, Mr. Neal will support the Foundation’s mission to provide philanthropic support to MIHS programs, education, research and capital improvement projects that advance patient welfare, improve quality of care, and increase community access to health care.

In addition to his service on the MHF board, Mr. Neal belongs to a number of legal and professional organizations including the Aviation Insurance Association, Helicopter Association International and Scottsdale Business Development Forum, among others. He also has served as a pro tem judge with Scottsdale City Court and was an advisory board member for ASU College of Arts and Sciences’ Center for Political Thought & Leadership

Mr. Neal is a Shareholder practicing in the area of civil litigation, with an emphasis on aviation law, commercial litigation, medical malpractice, product liability, wrongful death and personal injury. He has been recognized by Southwest Super Lawyers and The Best Lawyers in America and has an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating with Martindale-Hubbell.
