

INSURANCE

Gallagher & Kennedy's insurance attorneys skillfully navigate the legal landscape of the insurance industry to provide a variety of services to our clients, who include both insurance companies and those seeking insurance coverage. Our team has extensive experience advising insurance companies and insureds about insurance coverage and appropriate claims-handling practices.

Our experience representing both sides of insurance disputes enables our team to provide a balanced, well-informed analysis of the issues and overall better services to our clients.