

TAX LAW

NON-PROFIT AND TAX-EXEMPT ENTITIES

Gallagher & Kennedy's tax law team provides a full range of services related to the formation, governance, tax, and corporate issues faced by all types of non-profit and tax-exempt entities.

Our attorneys have experience representing many different types of non-profit and tax-exempt organizations, including religious, charitable, and educational organizations, hospitals and faculty practice plans, medical research organizations, social clubs, social welfare organizations, political organizations, and private foundations.

Our experience includes:

- Formation and representation of non-profit entities, charitable organizations and private foundations, including the preparation of applications for exemption from federal income tax, and representation of tax-exempt entities before the Internal Revenue Service
- Tax planning and advice regarding prohibited transactions, private inurement, and the deductibility of contributions
- Formation and governance of family foundations
