PUBLIC BIDDING & PROCUREMENT

In the Arizona marketplace, Gallagher & Kennedy stands as a leader in public bidding and procurement legal services because of our depth of experience and consistent history of success for our clients. Our team of attorneys offers top-notch counsel and advice, assisting clients with local, state and federal government contracting. We understand how cumbersome it can be for businesses merely to identify potential procurement opportunities, let alone figure out how to comply with the government's rules and regulations. We deploy our knowledge and experience to help you meet your business objectives.

Keenly focused on bottom-line results, our procurement lawyers work to identify meaningful revenue-generating opportunities for your business. We provide unmatched experience navigating the complex and specialized public bidding and procurement laws from start to finish. Our attorneys understand the technical aspects of procurement law and procedure and, just as importantly, how government contracting works in the real world.

We provide cost-effective advice and assistance focused on helping businesses identify and pursue contracting opportunities, minimize risk, eliminate pitfalls, avoid or resolve disputes and defend awards. If disputes do arise, our public procurement litigators have extensive experience before administrative and judicial tribunals, including decades of experience handling procurement disputes.
