

NATURAL RESOURCES

WATER RIGHTS

Gallagher & Kennedy attorneys have substantial expertise and experience in evaluating and protecting water rights, either in conjunction with real estate transactions or for ongoing commercial, industrial and mining operations. We are equipped to address day-to-day water rights issues, and to develop long-term strategies related to sustainable water supply and use, ongoing adjudication of water rights, and other important water rights concerns.