

NATURAL RESOURCES

WILDLIFE AND ENDANGERED SPECIES

Gallagher & Kennedy attorneys are experienced with federal and state wildlife laws including the Endangered Species Act and other special status species laws, the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, and addressing wildlife issues as part of NEPA compliance and environmental permitting. We have assisted in the preparation of habitat conservation plans, wildlife protection plans and other voluntary compliance efforts. We have defended clients in criminal prosecutions and civil proceedings regarding wildlife issues, including defense of natural resource damage claims.